

Technology & Morality

November 10, 2016, 10:00 –17:00 Room INFORM, DesignLab, University of Twente
Hengelosestraat 500, 7521 AN, Enschede, The Netherlands
<https://www.utwente.nl/en/bms/ttm/morality/>

Speakers: Prof. Dr. Batya Friedman, Prof. Dr. Tsjalling Swierstra, Dr. Tamar Sharon, Prof. Dr. Ir. Ibo van de Poel and PhD cand. Olya Kudina

Social media shape our voting inclinations, Google Glass – our understanding of privacy, and fitness trackers tell us what it means to be healthy. People increasingly make judgments against technological background. What does morality, mediated by technologies, mean for how we think of, use and design these same technologies?

Chair of the day: Prof. Dr. Ir. Peter Paul Verbeek (University of Twente)

Commenter: Dr. Michael Nagenborg (University of Twente)

Register for free at olga.kudina@utwente.nl

Everyone is invited to attend!

Bring your own lunch

This symposium is part of the conference on Theorizing Technological Mediation, 10, 16- 18 November 2016. For more information, please, visit:

www.utwente.nl/en/bms/ttm

UNIVERSITY OF TWENTE.

NWO

Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research