

Sergio Alvarado Vazquez
Researcher
Market Dynamics

Personal profile

Ph.D. Candidate in the Department of Urban and Regional Planning and Geo-Information Management from the University of Twente. Working with the research group of PLUS (People, Land and Urban Systems) with the research project: Infrastructuring public spaces in Mexico through social participation using technology as a support system. With a bachelor's formation as an urban environmental designer from the Autonomous University of Puebla in Mexico, with experience in urban transportation, urban design, collaborative planning, and social participation. And a master's degree in process and graphic expressions of architecture and urbanism from the University of Guadalajara. He has been working in several private and public companies in Mexico with planning experience in Canada.

Qualifications

Master, Participatory Method for the Design of Public Spaces, Universidad de Guadalajara
Award Date: 20 Feb 2017

Bachelor, BRT bus stop design for the city of Puebla, Benemerita Universidad Autonoma de Puebla
Award Date: 22 Oct 2012

Employment

Researcher

Market Dynamics
University of Twente
1 Oct 2023 → present

2018	Metropolitan Planning Institute of Puebla, Mexico
2018	Urban Systems as a community planner, BC, Canada
2017	Estudio PI S.C. as urban planner, Guadalajara, Mexico
2014	Urban Travel Logistics as a urban planner, Mexico city.
2012	Logit de Mexico as a transport planner, Puebla, Mexico